

UNTURNUED STONES: People of the State v Nicholas Thaddeus Kristos

After an attractive redhead introduces herself to prominent criminal defense attorney Nicholas Kristos, in the nave of the Greek Orthodox Church, and later claims he attacked and raped her, the county prosecutor puts ethics aside in his effort to end the career of his chief nemesis. Young Jonah Callahan takes on the defense of his law partner, only to be hammered, a week before the rape trial, by a personally devastating and indisputable factso unchangeable it prohibits him from continuing as the trial attorney. In his stead, locally infamous attorney Craig Phillips, reinstated to the practice after a four year disbarment, takes over Kristos defense, with the added hope of rehabilitating his own reputation.
