All Wild Bill Hickok wants as he sets out for Santa Fe is a place to lie low for a while, to get away from the fame and notoriety that follows him wherever he goes. But fame isn't the only thing that sticks to Wild Bill like glue. He made a lot of enemies over the years. And one of them, Frank Tutt, has waited a good long time to taste sweet revenge. He knows Wild Bill is on his way to Santa Fe and he is ready for him . . . ready and eager to make him pay. But after all these years he can wait a bit longer, long enough to play a little game with his legendary target. Oh, he will kill Wild Bill, all right?but first he wants Bill to know what it is like to live in Hell.
