

The Day Bombs Came to the Boston Marathon: RUNNING TARGET

All proceeds from the sale of this story will be donated to the American Red Cross of Eastern Massachusetts and Boston by Bridget Esk. This short story is dedicated to the people of Boston and all touched by the tragedy of April 15, 2013. It is written by a runner attempting to cope creatively with the feelings of horror this event inspired. Photos taken by the author at the Copley Square memorial. Thanks especially to those who helped lighten a dark day.
