The defender, William Johnston, contracted in April 1858 with the bankrupts, C. D. Young and Co., for two steam-engines at L.220. He received them on 2d June, and on 17th June the insolvency of C. D. Young and Co. was declared, at which time this firm was a debtor to the defender under two bills due on 20th July--one for L.123, 14s., and the other for L.94, 14s. The defender proposed to set off the value of the bills and charges thereon against the price of the engines, and to rank for the balance in the sequestration. The Court accordingly disallowed the issue; and having regard to the structure of the record, find that no issue can be granted under it, and remit to the Lord Ordinary to proceed with the
