

Having Her Cake and Loving It

Like many young women, Ebony Lovely dreams of a life filled with romance, true love, and excitement; and when Carson Brody moved in next door at a young age, her true love was found. It must be fate.

They both know that they are meant to be together, and neither will let anything get in the way of their happiness. Giddy with excitement, Her dreams are all about to come true. But on the morning of her wedding, her dream quickly becomes a nightmare. She wakes up next to a stranger in her bed, panicked that she can't remember what happened-or why this man is there. She must find a way to answer the many questions she has, so she can go through with the wedding with a clear conscience. The mystery man is handsome, no doubt, but why is he in her bed?

Jefferson Lewis is a man who knows what he wants and won't stop until he gets it. A blushing bride-to-be was more temptation than he could resist, and he expects Ebony and Carson to pay the price for his unresolved past. Can Ebony extricate herself from his scheming in time to salvage her wedding, let alone her marriage? Will the happy couple find a place in which they can truly be happy again-or will one predator's selfish games derail everything?
