

Dispense With Death

A hospital in crisis. People are dying unexpectedly and one young doctor is caught in the middle of the deaths. Patients he is treating die without any warning and his care comes under suspicion. Meanwhile a new consultant in the elderly psychiatric wards is not all he seems and has a bedside manner not normally seen in the NHS and his behaviour soon has an impact on the nursing staff. Then more deaths occur, this time in patients at home and the focus shifts onto other aspects of patient care. 25% of royalties from this novel will be donated to a leading charity
