CONTRAPOSITION : VOLUME III Is a mother someone who raises us? Are they lights on a dark road, shelters from the elements, coded transcriptions of hate and love? Is motherhood a narrative, a metaphor or an image? Perhaps this book suggests that motherhood is all of these things, a human experience that defines and is defined by all of us, so essential is our proximity to motherness. Perhaps these works of art are part of that experience and parents to our understanding of it. Edited by Ev Malcolm, Nathan Rupp, Chelsea Renhoff and Patrick Fallon. Layout by Gary Dauphin. Cover art Motherhood-ness by Diana Toma. Note from The Editors Thank you so much to our writers for sharing your hearts and words with us. Although were a small group, we think those that have yet to be discovered often have the most to say. And dont worry, we cant wait to keep listening.
