Presidential Mettle

Presidential Mettle-- the complete novel. President Alan Bergen was angry. He believed the principles of Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness were not exclusively American-- he believed they applied to everyone in the world. And he would enforce those principles worldwide-with military power, covert operations, and whatever means necessary. He was the angry president. He was the policeman for the world. He was Gods angry man, as Sam Barker, his best friend, described him.
