

The Pendant

Max has an interesting job. He is a handy man or Mr. Fix-It. The only difference is that he doesn't fix things around your house, he fixes situations. While his work is not always legal, he does it with good intentions and is a last resort for many people. Mary is a client that had something stolen from her. Max's job is to get it back. The object he needs to get back is something special to Mary, but she won't reveal why. Max's hunt for this object leads him into trouble and into love. However, this object may not be what it seems and many secrets will come to light.
