

With Eyes Wide Shut

Andi is a young and very dedicated woman whose life revolves around music on a daily basis for she works in a recording studio. Her best friend since high school is right by her side. Cody is always there to talk to when needed, practically portraying her other half. Running late for work one day changes Andi's life for good when she runs into another woman on the sidewalk. Trying to capture the moment Cade takes Andi's breath away. Through what seems like the perfect love and relationship it has its flaws just like any other. After Andi continuously deals with headaches and begins hearing random voices she seeks professional help. Could the medication be enough to bear with her? Could the perfect love she shares with Cade possibly exist or is Andi just living a dream? Feeling as though Andi is losing her mind she is determined to keep Cade in her life no matter the risk.
