

Silence in the rain: By: Chondrika Lucille Williams

Silence in the Rain was written from my thoughts, feelings, heart, and mind. These words came from my innermost being and are written to inform the reader on life, love, friendship as well as joys, sorrows, hurt, pain and her depressive state. Silence in the Rain shows how I kept my silence when I was going through the rain of personal relationships I kept silent. As the rain was falling down on me; falling from my mind; falling from my eyes; I kept silent I didnt talk to anyone about my innermost thoughts and feelings. I didnt express them openly. I kept them to myself and then began to write them down in my daily journal. Whether I was happy, sad, hurt, depressed, angered, or upset I wrote about it. It didnt matter if I just wanted to stand on the mountaintop or even drift into mid-air, I wrote it down. I guess one would say that I did indeed tell something or shall I say someone Myself my Journal.

These poems will not only inspire you, giving you good words of knowledge, but will inform you as well on different emotions that occur along lifes journey.
