Excerpt: ... ever, was that he did not know. No other evidence as to when or where the ear was iced, or what quantity was placed in the compartment, was offered. While the evidence may not have been strong on some features of the case, yet, under familiar rules of law, it was sufficient to require the submission of the ease to the jury. We therefore hold that the motion to direct a verdict should have been overruled, and that the judgment of the court below cannot be allowed to stand.--Reversed. Evans, C. J., Arthur and Faville, JJ., concur. City Of Bloomfield, Appellee, v. Isaac Blakely, Appellant. MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS: Ordinances--Enactment Without 1 Three Readings. Proposed ordinances may be passed at a single meeting of the council, and without three readings, when the statutory rule for reading on three different days is properly dispensed with. MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS: Ordinances--Presumption of Third 2 Reading. Record on the consideration of a proposed ordinance held to generate a presumption that the bill was read a third time. MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS: Ordinances--Motion for Final Passage. 3 An ordinance is sufficiently placed before the council for final passage by a motion that said bill for ordinance be placed of record for final passage, when the record further shows that the rule for three separate readings had been dispensed with, and that the bill had been properly read immediately preceding the making of such motion. Appeal from Davis District Court.--D. M. Anderson, Judge. October 18, 1921. Defendant was convicted in mayors court of violation of an ordinance of the city of Bloomfield, regulating the speed of automobiles upon the public streets. He appealed to the district court, where the action of the mayors court was sustained, and he now pros...
