Politics can be murder! Texas Congresswoman Carly Wagner knows that better than anyone. As a politician who speaks her mind and doesn't follow the party line, Carly has her hands full keeping the folks back home happy. As a divorced single parent, she's up to her ears in challenges with her twelve-year-old daughter--and an ex-hubbie who never behaves. So finding her party's most powerful man in her inner office dead presents a few tiny problems. To help her solve them, someone sends her a present. A tall, dark hunk who calls himself Mr. Jones. Carly's day could get better. But she doubts it. (88,000 words)
