

The Shadow of Black Star

The upcoming election in the former iron curtain country of Maldisia has become the focus of intense concern throughout the world. The warlike factions in Moscow will use the country to complete the final link in their insidious nuclear Ring of Fire. To accomplish this, their socialist puppets, who are masters of political intrigue, must be kept in power. The US and NATO countries have to rely on this small Eastern European nations politically-inexperienced democratic parties to unite and win against overwhelming odds. The democrats chances are further diminished by the ominous presence of Black Star, a secret organization of former KGB agents and terrorists. Their psychotic leader, Scorpius, will employ bribery, kidnapping, murder whatever it takes to achieve the Soviets objectives. Desperate to influence the election, the US State Department calls on Marc O'Neill to travel to Maldisia, under cover, and surreptitiously mastermind a campaign for the democrats. O'Neill, a successful election campaign strategist, accepts the challenge, not fully recognizing the extent of the danger involved. Once Scorpius recognizes O'Neill's true roll, he becomes a highly vulnerable target. His safety depends on the courage and skills of Karl Sabo, a battle-hardened CIA agent assigned to protect him.
