What was supposed to be a quick stop at the mall ends up being the turning point in JT's life. A split second decision forever entwines his fate with those who would seek to destroy his family and his country. The incident at the mall is just one of many attacks across the nation and as JT comes to terms with his role in the saga, he finds there are others out there willing to do what is right to protect life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. A talk radio show host, an FBI agent and a Texas Ranger all make a stand against the terrorists, proving to JT that he is not alone. With the protection of his family his primary goal, JT begins on a journey that, with the help of his newfound allies, will change the future of the country.
