

From Ireland to Direland

FOR ANYONE WHO HAS EVER THOUGHT, DAMN! THEYRE ALL GOING TO GET AWAY WITH IT! THE BOOK IS PART LOVE STORY PART POLITICAL AND SOCIAL HAND GRENADE. Jack Sarsfields wife Mary is dying, his business is dying, strangled by a bank, and the Ireland he loves has been turned into a Dire Land and is in deep trouble. He can do nothing about the first problem, and little about the second, but maybe he can do something about the third, and bring some retribution and justice to those who deserve it. But will he pay too high a price for doing so? Join them on a rollercoaster ride and revealing emotional journey. Though the story is set in Ireland it holds a resonance for people everywhere who feel that politicians, developers, bankers, lawyers and the elite are living by a different set of rules to ordinary mortals and getting away with it! Politics: Almost a perfect combination of the word poly meaning many and ticks meaning small blood-sucking animals. Remember: All it needs for evil to succeed is for good men to do nothing! ~ Edmund Burke. Irish Statesman and philosopher 1729 - 1797
