

Mine

Emily had a pretty much messed up life. She was the good girl who was always bullied and picked on every day in school. Emily is broken and torn. She feels completely depressed and to make things worse her mother died a few months ago. Emily's life took a downward spiral as she finds it very hard to cope with her mother's untimely death. Her father decides to move to Bradford for work. After her mother's death, Emily's father turned completely cold and heartless towards her. He ignores her and treats her like she does not even exist. The only person who cares about her is her brother Tyler. After moving to her new school, she finally meets a mysterious bad boy named Zayn. He seemed forbidden like the dangerous types she should stay away from and even her friends told her to stay away from him. But fate deemed otherwise. Soon their worlds collided and she became completely attracted to Zayn, started caring for her and wanted to make her feel beautiful and soon she finds herself falling in love with him. But will their love withstand all the trials that stood before them?
