

A Run Up The Coast - 3rd edition

In 2018 people revolt against the Concern a powerful secret international organization who is the true supremacy behind the industrial governments. The Regional Wars follow when power grids and technology shut down all over the globe. World order disintegrates into chaos and anarchy. In San Francisco a ruthless group the Guardians seize power and turn the city into a feudal state where you either serve or die. JC a Vietnam veteran biker decides to attempt a perilous motorcycle run for freedom up the coast road to join the New Society in Northern California. How will he avoid the Guardian patrols? Can he keep his old Harley running? Will the people he meets on his risky journey be friend or foe? Is freedom worth dying for? Can he kill again to protect his own life? Is freedom just an illusion...?
