

2055 (Truth and Reality Book 1)

The year is 2055 and society has leaped forward in technology. Virtual Reality, drones, and microchips are commonplace. The internet has been revamped to the Net, a place where anything and everything can be found. A new drug has hit the market, Element 1, that enhances the neural connection to the Net via Virtual Reality plug-ins. With this new drug, society begins to change. But not everyone is on board with where society is headed. Some fight to free the people from the bondage of virtual reality. Some fight to right wrongs.
