

This Corporation of Ours: Territory: Chapter Three (This Coporation of Ours Book 11)

This Corporation of Ours returns with its third chapter: Territory From its birth, to the Era of Six, and the Era of Seven, all the way to the rise of The Corporation, The Citys eight distinct boroughs are all equipped with their own cultures, features, and rules. These distinctions must be recognized and respected, for failure to abide by these distinctions will lead to yours and perhaps even The Citys ultimate demise. 1928- An outsider is attempting to take over the most lucrative borough in The City...Downtown. Some Families favor the move sighting a chance to destroy rival Families through loss of revenue. Other Families see the outsider as a threat, but the outsider has a way of dealing with those that wont give him what he wants. 1948- Carlo Bianchis murder has officially ended the drug war in The City, now all the Families share the profits equally. The Sassaris who were profiting greatly from their heroin trade are not happy about giving their lucrative business to the other Families for nothing, and they found a way of perhaps getting their business back...and get a little revenge for their beloved friend in the process. 2015- A political nightmare has just erupted in the rundown area of The Neck, and it could potentially lead to the destruction of The City himself #thecityneverrests
