

The Manor House: The Farm (The Manor House Omnibus Edition) (Volume 2)

WEEK ONE The farm was nothing like what Elisabeth was expecting. She was expecting to see an actual farm and had been imagining all sorts of humiliating tasks and punishments related to farmyard animals and truth be told a fleeting disappointment touched her thoughts.

Elisabeth has joined a world of spies, covert action, high level political and industrial influence. A secret world run by and filled by women. For the past two years she has attended the Manor House and undergone an education and training programme that is designed around sex, sexual desire, humiliation, discipline and punishment. Excelling at her studies, Elisabeth has been sent to The Farm. A training facility used by The Organisation to train their operatives in Spy Craft and to experience the sorts of interrogation techniques they can expect to receive should they be captured. In her Third Year, Elisabeth will experience the darker side to her new world. A side of sexual torment and torture, degradation and humiliation the likes of which she had never known before. Suspicions abound as to why a Third Year has been sent to The Farm, a whole year earlier than ever before, suspicions which are only furthered when a break in is discovered. Elisabeth is suspected and interrogated.....

WEEK TWO Elisabeth continues her time at The Farm, learning interrogation technique both on receiving and administering delving deeper into her sexuality and perversity. Public Medical examinations, pony girl races, tortures and torments all surround a deepening mystery of her Mothers death. The Farm continues Elisabeths training as a covert agent and embarks her on the hunt for the Council of Thirteen and the Matriarch who leads it.
