

Unfair Play - A Tale of Erotic Revenge (Muse of Shadow)

Im sorry, he whispered. He was sobbing, eyes red, tears streaking his face. Please dont do this. Im so sorry. I know you are, she whispered. Im glad you are. She leaned in like she might be going to kiss him. But then instead, she reached down between his legs to squeeze him, so that his words cut off with a gasp with pain. But Im not finished with you yet Tesss world is turned upside down when she discovers her boyfriends brief and meaningless sexual affair with a coworker. But even as she tries to set a course that might allow her to forgive him, she realizes that forgiveness is a process, not an end in itself and that making him understand the pain hes put her through is the best way to make sure hell never stray again This 18,300-word erotic novelette is a graphically detailed exploration of romance and sexuality, exploring cuckoldry, female revenge, female-to-male domination, male bisexual dominance and submission, and affairs between married couples. It is intended for adults only. EXCERPT (SFW) Tess pulled a chair from the dining table, setting it in the open space where the kitchen met the living room. Sit, she said. As Michael did, she dug into the utility drawer next to the fridge. She found the coil of nylon cord she was looking for. She had never tied anyone to a chair before. She thought briefly about whether she should go online to find instructions, but she didnt want to disrupt the timing of events. She started at his ankles, binding them tight to the chair legs and tying them off with a bow. Then up and a couple of times around his waist, looping around his hands and pulling them down tight against his outer thighs. No way for him to touch himself. Then up and across his chest, before she cinched the rope off tight to the chair back. He shifted a bit as she worked, looking a little uncomfortable. Good. I know you want to hurt me, he whispered. I understand. Tess said nothing, stalking off behind him into the kitchen. Baby? he called. What is all this? She answered by whipping a thickly coiled tea towel into his mouth, pulling hard to snap his head back. He was shocked enough that she had it tied by the time he wrested his head away from her. Not tight, but enough to keep him from talking. His eyes were wide with uncertainty. Not afraid, but just with no idea what was happening. He was still hard, she saw. Good. She went to the apartment door and opened it again. She locked it after Matt had stepped inside (For a NSFW excerpt, please download the free sample -- and enjoy.) What readers are saying about MUSE OF SHADOW: It is so wonderful to read erotica that makes use of the sensual side of our brain as well as engaging the carnal side too... Wonderful character development and interaction... one of the most enjoyable erotic reads I have had this year... This book is sexy, kinky and just a little funny to keep things in motion... Detailed, dynamic, and interesting... Wonderfully sensual... Sexually tantalizing on virtually every page... MUSE OF SHADOW is a producer and purveyor of no-holds-barred erotic literature -- couple-friendly and written for people who believe that the imagination is the most important component of human sexuality. Our books are written to provide a workout for those most sensual muscles of the mind. Caelyn Alba is a pseudonym responsible for the writing of erotic fiction and memoirs, much of it in conjunction with husband Sean Gerard Leah. In real life (when she can figure out what that is), she teaches humanities in the Pacific Northwest. Sean Gerard Leah (though he more often works under a cleverly similar name) is a Boston-born, Seattle-based novelist, poet, journalist, and editor. With his wife Caelyn Alba, he is a founding partner of the erotic-lit publishing house Muse of Shadow.
