

From My Underwear Drawer: Poems and Bits, Thoughts and Words

This collection of poems comes from years of collecting writings written in journals, on scraps of paper, and sticky notes. Delve into the imprisoned mind of an estranged and misunderstood teen with thoughts about love, life, spirituality and more. A raw and honest journey through a dark childhood and adolescence is represented. These poems, thoughts, and bits represent the lone teenage landscape of the late 1990s in a cutting way. Experience drama, tragedy, hate, desire, and indifference in real language that makes sense. Draw on the almost intangible way one can relate to a journey that is fraught with pitfalls. This book contains the following poems: The Attic, Lacking, Everglades, Break-Up, Picking Up My Life, The Hopes of Tomorrow, Season Notebook, Love of Loving, Crying Within, Boyfriend G, Mockery, Untrue, This Time, This Song, Beauty Within Itself, Scared Stiff, Im Going to Kill You, Five Feet Three, Wedding Day, Leaving Cady, I Just Know, Hannah, The Cloud, Heavenly, In Me, I Cant, Goodbyes, A-OK Number 1, The Room, Now, Aggressive, 1-2-3-4, Beyond, Love Hurts, 7 Deadly Sins?, Artwork, I Saw In Me, Here, Walked Off.
