

Pursuit Up North

Pursuit up North is an adventure story of two high school boys being pursued by terrorists in a wilderness canoe area in Northern Minnesota. The authors have created the thrill of the chase, the dangers of wilderness travel, and the ingenuity that is spawned by living a life in the woods. How often have you been on a trip and upon returning to civilization, wondered if the world had radically changed? This is what happened to Linus and Erik in the book Pursuit up North.
