This story is set in the old west when the options for women were very limited. Its a story of acceptance, hypocrisy, and forgiveness. Two women are rivals for the same man. One is the good girl, Laura. The other is Francie, the bad girl. Who wins the man? Eventually Laura is forced to turn to her formal rival for help. Will Francie accept Lauras offer? Soon Laura and Francie develop a friendship that Paul, the man they both love, doesnt understand. Can he stay true to one while staying away from the other?
