

Greens Scottish Human Rights Service

Greens Scottish Human Rights Service is the first and only comprehensive source of human rights legal materials in Scotland. It is the essential work of reference on this rapidly developing and important subject, providing expert and practical insight into the impact of the Convention across all areas of Scots law practice. This significant looseleaf draws together all Acts and sections of Acts, that have been created or amended through the European Convention on Human Rights, while case digests bring together all the relevant case law from Scotland, the UK, Strasbourg and Commonwealth jurisdictions.
