

Playthings and Pets

A compilation of three hot tales of transformation and control! Cassie's Conundrum: Beginning with night after frustrating night of unfulfilled fantasies, Cassie's life begins to take a strange turn. Discovering an unexpected taste for domestication and obedience, Cassie soon finds herself on all fours learning all sorts of new tricks sometimes whether she wants to or not. Will Cassie ever be able to go back to being a normal girl, or will she end up at the end of a leash? Manor of Change: Four friends fulfill a childhood dream of staying just one night in the spooky manor on the edge of town. Inside, they stumble upon a private library filled with some rather unique books. One such book tells of a dominant head of house and his bimbo wife, as well as their deviant maid and her dog. Soon, fiction starts to become their reality as each person finds themselves changing into a different character in the story. Will they ever escape the Manor of Change? Will they even want to? Second Honeymoon: The story of the manor continues as Josh and Sophia struggle to come to grips with the source of the house's power, even as it begins to break free of its confines. As a new family comes bringing new distractions and new fantasies into all of their lives, each of them will have to try and balance what needs to be done with what begs to be done... and try to keep their humanity as they do so.
