

Soul Shift - 2012 and Beyond

The family survived the EarthShift, and all but one ascended to the Fifth Dimension. Since then, Julie and Dave Armstrong's family has worked hard on their own growth and the spirituality of those left behind in the Third Dimension; the struggling souls who must shed their fears and negativity in order to transition. The vibrations of the next consciousness shift are building as the family prepares for its most crucial role. Their mission—and they have chosen to accept it—is to unlock the secret hidden deep inside Crystal Mountain that critical key for mankind's next spiritual step—the Soul Shift. To succeed, Jesse and his cousins must pit their powers against evils as old as time itself. There is a deadline. Will they survive? Will mankind? Judith Horky does it again—opening our minds and hearts to the possibilities of the upcoming Golden Age that has long been predicted. Her characters take us on journeys between dimensions as the light becomes more and more available to each human being. The story suggests the choices that we all have between fear and love and the dramatic outplaying of both of these intense emotions. Readers will enjoy this spiritual adventure story for both its excitement and ultimately for the lesson that it suggests; namely that we are made of Love and in realizing it, we come home to our true selves. I know readers will love this book, I did. Meredith Young-Sowers, D.Div., Founder and Director: The Stillpoint School of Integrative Life Healing.
