

The Hatbox Baby

A fascinating, lyrically written tale (Kirkus Reviews), this is a love story about an offbeat doctor and a famous fan dancer; and an epic novel about misfits and makeshift families, fragile lives and unpredictable loves—all set against the backdrop of Chicago's 1933 Worlds Fair. Mesmerizing reading. [An] uncommon, contemplative novel. (Orlando Sentinel) Quietly plotted, richly imagined and rendered with remarkable grace. (Atlanta Journal-Constitution) Suffused with a warm and sympathetic intelligence. (Chicago Tribune)
