

The Impact of International Climate Change Policies: Leading Lawyers on Counseling Clients, Navigating Recent and Upcoming Developments, and Recognizing ... of Climate Change Policy (Inside the Minds)

The Impact of International Climate Change Policies is an authoritative, insiders perspective on recent changes and upcoming developments in climate change law in the United States and abroad. Featuring partners from some of the nations leading law firms, these experts guide the reader through policies already set in place and those that may be implemented in the future. These top lawyers reveal their advice on managing the legal side of environmental policy, including advising clients, monitoring and enforcing policies, and understanding the basic components of climate change cases. These leaders discuss the countries and industries concerned with climate change and provide valuable insight into current and upcoming policies on big issues, including deforestation, greenhouse gas emissions, and the conservation of natural resources. Additionally, this book addresses the advancements the United States and the world have made in environmental law and the key goals to developing a global policy in response to climate change. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today, as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts around the keys to success within this rapidly changing area of law. Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business intelligence from C-Level executives and lawyers (Chairman, CEO, CFO, CMO, Partner) from the worlds most respected companies and firms nationwide. Each chapter is comparable to an essay/thought leadership piece and is a future-oriented look at where an industry, profession, or topic is heading and the most important issues for the future. Each author has been selected based upon their experience and C-level standing within the professional community. Chapters Include: 1. Kevin M. Dempsey, Partner,
