

The Law Firm of Psycho & Satan

Modern day divorce litigators are a throwback to medieval jousting champions. Instead of donning chain mail, the warrior comes to battle in pencil skirts and stilettos. Cooper Bach may represent an unlikable client in an unworthy cause, but she is paid to march onto that bloody field, day after day, and clobber an ex-spouse. After a mercenary's no longer able to believe in her cause, does she lose her soul? Will Ted Danveldt, attractive bartender, be able to vault Coopers snarky defenses and bring her back to a life worth living? Written by real-life attorney, Tracy Edingfield, this story reflects the harsh reality for anyone who has stood on either side of a lawyer's desk.
