

The Phantom Canoe

A FICTION HOUSE PRESS FACSIMILE REPRINT: Returning to the settlement of Lac L'Outre after a prospecting trip, Alan Laramie is arrested by the Northwest Mounted Police on a charge of murdering Seth Gridley. The murder weapon, together with a rich pile of furs, is found in Alans canoe. Alans protest that a stranger had asked him to deliver the furs downriver and that the weapon was obviously planted is believed only by Joan Hastings at the trading post. When lynch talk is in the air, Joan helps Alan escape from jail. Then follows a perilous flight through the wilderness in this memorable and gripping novel of an exciting manhunt in the Canadian Northwest.
