

A Struggle Within (Struggles Book 1)

This book contains Violence, sex, teenage angst about growing up, and child abuse from a step parent. This is a fictional book about real life shit that some kids face. If Violence, sex, and swearing is not cool for you then please dont buy this book. If you can have an open mind and are keen to see how a teenager grows into herself then I hope you enjoy the book. Lissa Parker is a horse riding ballerina not your regular girly girl, a tomboy , but the secret she refuses to burden anyone with of the physical and sexual abuse her No Go Zone. She wont open up to anyone she must keep her sister safe at all costs. While Lissa finds a way to deal with her misery at home aka prison , she also finds her way through finding that been a teenage girl and exploring isnt so bad, she figures out that what shes been told by her abuser is not right. She discovers that its ok to feel pleasure from a touch from a boy that has stolen her heart, even when that same touch reminds her of nightmares and the reality of her life. Lissas cover stories are almost award winning (Exert from book) { What the fuck happened to you Jaymee squealed. She was looking at my black eye and fat lip, she noticed I was walking funny too with my painful steps. I did my best to hide it but nothing worked. A tree I answered still sore and sorry from the day before beating, using my usual excuse for my black eyes You gotta teach that horse of yours to go round them dumb ass or start ducking Ginni said with a laugh. I smiled and said Hay that Tommy the farm hand up the road is hot I cant help it if he works without a shirt on while I am riding my horse, its a little distracting you Fanning my face to show how hot he made me feel. Jaymee clapping her hands well done Lissa so is he your knight in shining armor I winked and smiled hoping my lie about the state I was in not the hot farm hand was going to work.} When Lissa meets Dean theres an instant attraction like no other she cant explain it but when her head tells her to run away and her heart tells her to run to him, she chooses to run to him but gives him the warning she will not now or ever talk about her No Go Zone and she sets him this one rule that he is not allowed into that part of her world. Dean the sweetest man youll ever meet decides that to get to know his baby girl as he calls Lissa better theyll play a game of twenty questions, lessen the feeling of an interrogation and he gets to learn more about the young woman he wants a forever with. Dean agrees to stay out of the No Go Zone he knows she needs him and he needs her, he will be patient she will open up to him he believes it. One of Lissas cover stories blows up in her face but she doesnt know it yet as Tommy and Dean that think each one is to blame for something come together. Having had enough and needing answers Dean breaks her trust asking the wrong person 3 questions and she now bares 3 burn scars from it. Those scares she carries with her remind her how close she came to letting someone in and how she cant let that happen again. She lets go of all that she loves she has to, to survive and if that means breaking the heart of the one she loves then so be it, he deserves it. Doesnt he? After feeling like she is on the right path she packs her bags, she is going to spread her wings and learn how to fly on her own, she needs to do this, she is young in years but old in heart and her mind made up she needs to survive to protect her sister so she plans to make a life for herself get educated, and onto a career path so she can take little Jess away from what would become her life, one that Lissa has lived and will haunt her forever, but a wake up call in install for her. { I was dragged outside it was so dark. The moon was trying to shine through the clouds but it was losing its battle as I was mine. } near death Deans love is what saves her, but is love enough to save them both. 202,321 words
