

The Terrorists

An explosion erupts inside a Nigerian shopping complex, killing fifteen people and injuring dozens more. Police suspect the religious extremist group Boko Haram.

The family of Dr. Dayo Bello discovers that he is among the dead. But to the family's surprise, the authorities arrive at his funeral and suggest he's somehow connected to the attack. Could that be true?

A counterterrorism unit becomes involved when a second explosion occurs a few weeks later. Sergeant Samantha Daniels takes the lead on the investigation, along with Detective Tunde Omopariola and two special agents. She believes there's something more mysterious going on than a religious extremist group, but she must go undercover to search for the truth. It will be a life-threatening mission. In the midst of it, she'll have another surprise: a potential love interest when she expects it the least. Will she find the culprit? And will she get the man? Find out in The Terrorists, a suspenseful political thriller based in Nigeria. Author Olufunmi Omopariola Olayinka tells a tale of greed and misconceptions in a page-turner of a novel perfect for lovers of crime, mystery, romance, and suspense.
