

The Woodcarvers Hand

When Gail is forced to face the reality of her grandfathers death, she is confronted with the horrors of her past childhood. Her only means of escape is to relive the events she has locked away in her mind for nearly twenty years. With the help of a befriended stranger, she sets out in search of answers to her past. Together, she and the mysterious stranger, unravel the riddles surrounding their baffling lives, and unlock the doors to the hidden secrets entrapped within their souls.
