When a ghost refuses to enter the world of the dead, everything started to flip upside down, and the same happens in this horror mysterious story Set in small village in Maryland, when a female ghost (Emily), who was murdered, appears in front of a government official (Brian) and pleads for the man to punish her murderer. The government official then attempts to appease her anger and do as she wishes. Brian is a man who has the power to see and hear ghosts. He heads for a small town in Maryland looking for his mother. His mother was missing for 10 years. While walking with his servant (Charley), Brian sees a ghost named Emily while she was being chased by ghost hunter Dust. Brian pretends to not see them, as this is his usual routine when he comes across ghosts. Brian is appointed as a sheriff and Emily begs him after finding out that he can see her to find who killed her. The sheriff agrees but he continues his quest for his mother and Emily, fed up from living like a ghost, asked god to revive her, the following day, she found that she was human again and she starts looking for the reason of her death. Brian falls in love with Emily as she was very spontaneous and beautiful and didnt want her to die again, but something was puzzling, Emily was carrying the ornament of Brians mother, and he started to get attracted more to Emily because he believed she must know something; and all she had to do was to regain her memory.
