

Sunrise Over Peoria: A True Love Story

Sunrise Over Peoria is a true love story, as well as a collection of office romances and intrigues. Accountant James Thomas is about to turn thirty-five and decides his life is headed into oblivion unless he changes his location and his job. He applies for a position with The National Office Furniture Company in Peoria, Illinois and is successful in landing it. Since he is not married everyone at the office attempts to set him up with their unmarried female friends, but Jim has romantic desires toward the charming Nancy who is married to Edward, his best friend at the firm. Also on the scene are the hot pants secretary Gloria, the company doctor Agnes, and the young sales clerk, newly hired Cindy Fortune. The men of the company include the owner Henri LaBlank, the manager Elwood Perkins, and the head salesman Philip Best. These employees and many others merge in an adventure of sex, intrigue, and genuine romance. This is an adult story with some violence and explicit sex.
