

The Black Hole Resort and Country Club (the Gall series Book 3)

Everything you think about outer space is wrong. Do you dare to look for Reason in the Universe? Has all your luck drained out? The sogomni engineer Harold makes his own luck in this third book in the series that, when read, mimics the toe cramps bats must feel. Sharpeer is an ex-Proobian thrown into space for nonpayment of debts. Ever watchful, Harold pulls her in to safety. Before the sogomni can prepare and make lunch of her she is rescued by the crew. She sends them all on a journey through the Strigneum Tunnel and down to a tempestuous planet called Proobia. The Gall needs to get out of there quick so they make a sweet deal with a Brehooian to haul a load of slippery Nullfrix to the Black Hole Resort. The question is, will they live to regret it? Or even notice?
